Introduction

Your astrological horoscope (natal chart) at birth is an important key to your personality and character, but your natal chart is not the last word about you. As time moves on after the moment of your birth, the Sun, Moon, and planets continue to circle through the heavens forming ever-changing kaleidoscopic patterns in relation to your own birth chart, bringing out or obscuring this or that part of you.

It can be useful to know how these ongoing planetary patterns relate to your life, and that is what this report is about. Here we calculate the primary astrological changes in your chart and interpret them so that you can see at a glance what is happening at any given time. Your events are arranged and interpreted chronologically, by well-known astrologer Michael Erlewine, and each event includes date and time, keywords, astrological indicator, and an astro-tarot card. We hope you enjoy your forecast.

In the tradition of astrology the planets have always been interpreted separately from the Sun and the Moon, which are called "The Lights," and for good reason. They literally light up our life and their combined interaction describes the essence of what is happening to us at any given time. Although called "The Moon Report," any mention of the Moon automatically involves the Sun, and of course, our Earth. These three, the Sun, Moon, and Earth, in their endless interaction are perhaps the single most important factor to observe in astrology.

The ever-changing relationship in the sky between the Sun and the Moon is perhaps most obvious at the Full Moon, but as we know, it is going on all the time. This report tracks the Sun-Moon relationship as it relates to your particular natal horoscope and birth chart, detailing all of the major events that take place in the current month for a specific life area and planet.

The Moon has always represented the 'mother', meaning anything that nurtures or cares for us, our support system, however that is made up. It also indicates our emotional makeup, how we feel about things, and the nostalgia of the past - where we came from.

On the other hand, the Sun represents the 'father' principle and the future, where we are heading toward and, to some degree, the means we have to get there. The Sun burns brightly, while the Moon is cool and comforting. The two together mark the endless play between the past and the future, and we here on Earth, are caught right in the middle, that is: the present.

About the Career and Life Path Forecast

Your Jupiter Forecast

Jupiter is the planet of career and life direction. One of the ancient Sanskrit words for Jupiter is 'guru' and Jupiter is literally the guide as well as the path we take through life. The planet Jupiter is always our way through whatever obstacles or circumstances we are currently faced with, including the problems, which usually involves the laws of this universe and the planet Saturn. This is why lawyers are connected to Jupiter. They handle the law, and show us (at times) how to get around the law.

This forecast is about how the planet Jupiter figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. It will have much to say about your career and the best path through life for you to tread at this time. We hope you enjoy it.

Jupiter in your Natal Chart

Before we present your Jupiter forecast for the coming months, let's review how the planet Jupiter is configured in your natal or birth chart. What follows is an interpretation of Jupiter at your birth to the Sun, Moon, and other planets. It should help to give you a general idea of how you related to matters of career and a life path. Here goes:

Jupiter
Trine
Moon
(Waning)

Preserving

You have confidence and pride in whatever you have completed or are currently on, in particular, when it comes to matters of public or private success of some kind, perhaps with your family or your surrounding support structure. You may like to communicate, teach, and tell others about this.

Jupiter
Trine
Sun
(Waning)

Conserve Success

Awareness of what you have accomplished (success) gives you pride, and a handle on just how successful things can be. Also, you show pride and ownership in what you have done, and enjoy telling others about it.

Jupiter
Sesquiquadrate
Mercury
(Waning)

Word Block

You find it easy to get a handle on where you are with career plans and ideas, and education or mental advancement, in general. This could be a confidence builder, bringing a sense of accomplishment, or it could bring home how far off the mark you currently are. Some difficult going in these waters, so the key is awareness, not more action on your part. Take a good look.

Jupiter
Quincunx
Venus
(Waning)

Teach Success

Life may be somewhat difficult at times, but life experiences should find you getting a better handle on career and success plans, and also bring increased awareness of your feelings about your career, in general, and a sense that you have greater control in these areas. You love your career and any path that leads somewhere, and enjoy sharing this with others..

Jupiter Semisextile Mars
(Waning)

The Rules

You can reduce your efforts to drive forward and to succeed to the bare essentials. You pull back and husband your resources, in preparation for another effort.

Jupiter Conjunct Saturn
(Waxing)

Skillful Ideas

You are at home with ideas relating to handling the law, lawyers, and all questions of a disciplined career, whatever involves following the law to the letter.

Jupiter Semisextile Uranus
(Waning)

The Core Path

You are good at paring down ideas relating to innovations and new ideas relating to success and career down to just the core, seed items.

Jupiter Sextile Neptune
(Waning)

Discrimination

You are skilled at examining and analyzing how to bring more imagination and inspiration into your career path and plans for success. A career of inspiration, but with an analytical twist.

Jupiter Conjunct Pluto
(Waxing)

Strategies

You have many ideas about success, and about career moves achieved through asserting control and gaining power. You are attracted to depth psychology.

Your Career and Life Path Forecast

Your Jupiter Forecast

Now that we have reviewed how Jupiter is configured at your birth, let's get to the heart of this report, a forecast as to how Jupiter (matters of career and direction) will play out in the coming months. These are the actual transits that will occur between the Sun, Moon, and other planets in relations to Jupiter, laid out in an easy-to-read calendar-like format.

Each event will be described by date, day of the week, and include an interpretation written by astrologer Michael Erlewine about how that event might appear in your life. This includes a brief keyword description, when you can expect this event to be exact, the astrological jargon professional astrologers can read, and even a little tarot-like card image to jump-start your imagination.

By reading through the activity of Jupiter forecast in the coming months, you basically have a roadmap of how this planet will manifest its nature and play out in your life. We hope you enjoy your forecast.

Confidence and pride in something you have completed or been working on, related to your family or your surrounding support structure may run into minor blocks or obstacles, turning you away from where you thought you are going, altering your course. This is to be expected, and requires you to change course, taking a more open and responsive attitude.

Preserving

Moon Trine Jupiter (Wan) Transit to Transit

This is time to make some adjustments related to public or private success, in particular, as relates ambitions involving family and your support structure. Not pushing on in the same old way, but a little retro-fitting or tailoring to meet declining expectations is in order. Be realistic!

Public Success

Moon Square Jupiter (Wan) Transit to Transit

A real turning point related to questions of public success or success with your family and the past, in general. Whether the success was good, bad, or indifferent is not important. Now is when to let it go, detach yourself personally from it, and move on to form a more impartial and impersonal point of view of the whole thing – a natural change.

Handling the Law

Jupiter Opposite Saturn (Wan) Transit to Transit

This is a time and an experience of, at best, overcoming obstacles through careful judgment and adherence to the laws. There is progress through patience. At worst, efforts to succeed are hindered.

Critical Path

Moon Sextile Jupiter (Wan) Transit to Transit

As relates to matters of public or private success (past, family, younger people, etc.), you now have the energy and detachment (discernment) to see what should be maintained, and what can be culled out for the trash bin. This should be an active time for making decisions related to the above matters. Cut out excess.

Resistance

Moon Semisquare Jupiter (Wan) Transit to Transit

Don't push on at this point. In fact, let go of much of whatever you have held on to recently, in particular relating to home and family – your support system. Get along with less.

Inspiration Block

Jupiter Semisquare Neptune (Wax) Transit to Transit

This is a time when you may find a way to realize your dreams, get some inspiration, and add something more imaginative to your life. When these efforts bump up against the shores of reality, press on, and don't be discouraged. Progress here comes through patience at this point.
